Mr. John A. McCone
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Langely, Virginia

Dear Mr. McCone:

It is a pleasure to express the appreciation of the U. S. Army Intelligence School for the fine presentation given at Fort Holabird, on 14 March 1962, by [redacted] to STAT students attending the Intelligence Collection Staff Officer and Military Intelligence Officer Career Courses.

The speakers presented an extremely interesting and illuminating explanation of techniques utilized to meet certain intelligence requirements. The examples used for illustration, based on actual operations, together with items of equipment which were displayed and discussed, significantly enhanced the presentation.

Thank you for your courtesy in making possible this profitable instruction and please convey [redacted] my sincere STAT appreciation.

Sincerely,

LAURENCE C. BROWN
Colonel, Infantry
Assistant Commandant
